Help Lift Lives This October.

G&W Equipment is going Pink for Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We're auctioning off a limited-edition Pink EJE120 Electric Pallet Jack. Every dollar raised will go directly to Share Our Suzy Lowcountry (SOS), a non-profit that provides critical support to breast cancer patients in the Charleston area.

We've painted one of our EJE120 electric jacks pink to support Breast Cancer Awareness Month — and this special edition could be yours!

All proceeds from the auction will be donated to SOSLowcountry.

Together, We Can Lift More Than Just Pallets. We Can Lift Lives.

How To Participate:

- Send your bid in to: forklifts@gwequip.com
- Bidding closes on October 24th
- The winning bid will be announced October 27th

Founded in memory of a woman named Suzy, who lost her battle with breast cancer in 2005, SOS is a volunteer-driven organization providing financial and day-to-day support to breast cancer patients in the Lowcountry. Since its inception, SOS has distributed over $1 million in direct aid to help cover costs like:

- Transportation to treatment
- Groceries & utility bills
- Childcare during appointments
- Wigs & prosthetic bras
- Medical equipment
- Lodging for rural patients and their families
